

COUNTRY WATCH

Western Weekly:

19th September 2014

Colleagues,

Thank you to all those that came out to support Country Watch at both Romsey Show and Hampshire County Sports day at Alresford last weekend, both days were extremely busy, we had a lot of enquiries, including firearms licensing queries. That's the last of the shows for this season, they are long days standing so the team might try and put their feet up for at least a few days!

Next week Sgt Debby Holman and PCSO Olie Hulse will be attending Bramshill (Police training college) to complete the National Wildlife training course.

Alan and I will now be catching up with all the follow up enquiries from the event and shows season, so if you have not heard from us in the past few months and are waiting for a visit, we should be getting around to you all in the next couple of weeks, please feel free to contact us on our team mobile 07766 423174 if you would like additional security products or a site visit with Country Watch posters.

Kind Regards

Scott Graham
Western Country Watch Police Constable
